CGI COMMUNICATIONS CEO INVITED TO CUBA BY U.S. CONFERENCE OF MAYORS
Proud and Honored to Join Group's First Trip to Country Since 1978

Owner, founder, and CEO of CGI Communications, Inc. Bob Bartosiewicz has been invited to embark on a very special trip to Cuba with the U.S. Conference of Mayors. The historic USCM Mayoral Mission will depart on 5/25 from Miami, returning on 5/29.

For the first time since the easing of diplomatic relations between the United States and Cuba, the U.S. Conference of Mayors is bringing a major delegation of mayors and business leaders to the island nation. The delegation will participate in high-level government, business, and cultural exchanges over the course of several days. The Conference of Mayors last traveled to Cuba in 1978, and the government of Cuba is eager to receive this historic delegation.

In addition to Mr. Bartosiewicz, representatives from Comcast, Walmart, Waste Management, and Reynolds American will also be in attendance, along with the USCM delegation: Stephanie Rawlings-Blake, Mayor of Baltimore, President; Mick Cornett, Mayor of Oklahoma City, Vice President; Mitch Landrieu, Mayor of New Orleans, Second Vice President; Tom Cochran, CEO & Executive Director; and Key USCM and City Staff.

Meetings with high-level Cuban officials will be arranged and included on the agenda. The USCM delegation and the business representatives will participate in the official meetings as arranged and approved by the government of Cuba. Mr. Bartosiewicz is thrilled to have been invited on this historic visit, and is honored to represent our city, state, and country.
